Lunations and Long-term Aspects

The Full Moon this month on September 8 is in your sign, Fishies, and on your natal Sun if your birthday is right around March 7, in which case this lunation will have a stronger effect. The Sun is in your polar sign, Virgo, which represents your 7th house of relationships including your significant other, close friends and relatives, business partners, business professionals, cliental, competitors and open enemies which suggests some emphasis on this part of your life which will reflect on you personally in some manner. As you probably already know, a Full Moon typically delivers an ending, culmination or shift to a new phase so watch for that with regard to something that influences you at the personal level and is likely to involve someone close to you. Perhaps someone will phase out of your life or shift to a new level in your interactions.

Venus is also in Virgo, a nice place for the goddess of love which can be favorable for being receptive to others. She is opposing your modern sign ruler, Neptune, who's hanging out in your sign and will be there for a quite a long time. With Venus upstream from the Sun and Neptune upstream from the Moon this pair will add their influence to the lunation as well. The one thing to watch out for with this one is delusions with regard to love or other relationships. Confusion is another possibility. More often than not an opposition calls for balance so discard the rose-colored glasses but still maintain a positive outlook. This could be a favorable time to meet someone or perhaps advance an existing friendship to the next level. It's also possible that the other party won't quite know what to make of you or your intent may be unclear. In other words if someone brushes you off it may simply be because they didn't understand what your intentions were. Especially if you have Mercury in Pisces you may already have a bit of a handicap with communicating, at least with other humans in a practical manner. Don't take this personally, just acknowledge that you may have to work a little harder for people to understand what you're thinking or wanting.

Saturn is in fellow Water Sign, Scorpio, your 9th house of legal matters, philosophy of life, beliefs, expectations, other cultures, long-distance travel, higher learning and relocation and is in favorable aspect with both the Sun and Moon which helps mitigate that opposition. Saturn relates to structure, discipline, responsibility and boundaries which in this particular house suggests sticking to your guns as far as your beliefs are concerned which should provide some assistance with whatever is going on. Another way of saying that is to be yourself and don't compromise for the sake of others within a valid reason to do so. Forget the people-pleasing approach. This can also help present you as a responsible person and help if your message isn't as clear as you'd like. It's a reminder not to stretch the truth as well, something that Pisces can be prone to do, partly because you have an awesome imagination and partly because you're sensitive and would rather tell a fib than hurt someone's feelings. There are times, however, where nothing short of the truth will work.

Your ancient sign ruler, Jupiter, is in Leo, your 6th house of work, health, service and pets. If you have any employees then they reside there as well. Jupiter is quincunx your natal Sun if your birthday is right around March 2 which indicates a change of direction, adjustment, need to justify your position or possibly a Catch-22 regarding something in this part of your life. Jupiter is also quincunx Pluto in Capricorn which means those of you born on March 2 are also dealing with a yod, a.k.a. finger of God. Pluto involves transformations as well as power, control, corruption, elimination and believe it or not, healing. He is in your 11th house of friends, groups, organizations, networking, goals, hopes and wishes. This looks like a time when changing jobs may occur, perhaps to an entirely new field or one that will have a significant impact. Of course it could relate to other 6th house matters as well, that is just one possibility. Your income is likely to be involved as well with the trine between Uranus and Jupiter suggesting a positive increase that may come out of the blue. Of course those are the kind of surprises we all love! Pluto stations direct on September 22/23 which will give his influence an extra boost.

The New Moon on September 23/24 is in Libra, your 8th house of transformations, debt, shared resources, death and rebirth, sex, things you suppress and intense, life-changing experiences. If your birthday is right around February 20 the lunation will quincunx your natal Sun and make it more likely for you to encounter something related to this house. Most of the planets are going solo for this lunation with relatively few aspects between them. There's still a chance for an unexpected change in your income which will hopefully be positive. There's a chance, however, that if this involves a job chance that it may be a big decision to accept it or something else may be holding you back. Examine your reservations carefully. Another thing to watch for at this time is taking action on anything with your eyes wide open. Make sure you're seeing things clearly and not through the lens of wishful thinking. This works both ways; the action could very well be very positive yet involve a challenge that's intimidating. Muster your courage and make sure you have all the facts before deciding and you should do fine.
